SCHOOL OF LAW

CORDELL HULL
One of the famous alumni of the School of Law

From the Memoirs of

CORDELL HULL

In early January, 1891, I began my formal law education, entering the senior class of the Cumberland Law School at Lebanon, Tennessee.

Cumberland Law School was a famous institution which had turned out many Senators and Congressmen . . . There I enjoyed the teaching of three of the finest law instructors I have ever known at any institution of learning—Chancellor Nathan Green, Dr. Andrew B. Martin, and Judge Edward E. Beard. Young men came from many states to get the benefit of their instruction. When I went to Congress sixteen years later I found in Washington four or five Senators, one Justice of the Supreme Court and twelve to fifteen Congressmen who were graduates of Cumberland University.

In June I passed the final examination and was graduated. According to custom, we members of the graduating class, the moment we received our diplomas, took them to the courthouse, where a district judge awaited us. He swore us in as members of the bar. I was not twenty years old. According to an Act of an early State Legislature, graduates of the Cumberland Law School could be admitted to the bar under the age of twenty-one—others could not.

I ran into my first law case on my way back from the law school— — — — .

General Information

LOCATION

The city of Lebanon, in which Cumberland University is located, is thirty miles east of Nashville, Tennessee, in a beautiful section of the state. Lebanon is served by the Tennessee Central Railway and by modern bus lines on the Hermitage Highway from Nashville and on other highways.

BRIEF HISTORY

The School of Law was established in Cumberland University October 1, 1847, as a result of the action of the Board of Trustees taken on February 22, 1847. Distinguished professors, who were widely known and favorably regarded by those who had the best interests of legal education at heart, have been on the faculty throughout the history of the School of Law.

When the law school opened in 1847, the course of study comprised two years of law without any definite pre-legal requirements. In 1871 the course of study was reduced to one year; this plan was continued till 1935, with major emphasis on the textbook plan of study. In 1935 a second year was added, emphasizing the case method of study. On July 10, 1946, the two-year plan was officially closed. Beginning in September 1946, the requirements of the School of Law were established as follows: (1) two years of pre-legal college work with a minimum of 96 quarter hours; (2) three years of full-time study of law.

Considerable emphasis is placed on the study of Tennessee law, but since many of the students come from other states a wide acquaintance with the general rules, principles, and standards of American law is required so that these students may be prepared to practice before the bar of any state.

The program of the School of Law, as it is now constituted, seeks to maintain high standards of legal education and to give the students adequate equipment to practice law, and in addition to impress them with their responsibilities both to their clients and to society in the practice of their profession.

THE GREEN CHAIR OF LAW

In 1948 the Green Chair of Law was established in connection with the Second Century Program of development of the University. This endowed Chair was named in honor of three men who rendered distinguished service to Cumberland University and to the State of Tennessee. These were: Nathan Green; his son, Nathan Green, Junior; and the latter's son Grafton Green. Nathan Green and Nathan Green, Junior, were professors in the School of Law. Grafton Green was an alumnus of the University, and took time from his arduous duties as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee to serve as special lecturer in the School of Law.

By action of the Board of Trustees in January 1950, Judge Sam B. Gilreath was appointed Green Professor of Law. Judge Gilreath, a professor of law since 1932, is the first to receive the honor of appointment to the Green Chair of Law.

THE CORDELL HULL LIBRARY

A large and valuable library for the use of law students is open every day in the week, Sundays excepted. It is located in the law building in a comfortably furnished room, well lighted and heated. It contains over 14,000 volumes. Special mention may be made of the National Reporter and Digest Systems, Corpus Juris, Corpus Juris Secundum, Ruling Case Law, American Jurisprudence, L. R. A., both original and new series, American Law Reports, Federal Cases, United States Reports, American Reports, American Decisions, American State Reports, English Ruling Cases, and British Ruling Cases, besides a great collection of other standard law books. The library has English reports and reprints and statutes to date.

The library is kept up-to-date by the constant addition of new books as published. All of the published opinions of the courts of last resort of all the states of the United States, together with the opinions of all the Federal Courts, and the intermediate Appellate Courts of the State of New York, are found in the library. It contains the statutes of the forty-eight states. All the best legal periodicals are received currently, and complete, bound sets of most of the best periodicals are maintained.

SCHOLARSHIPS

At the present time, ten scholarships are available in the School of Law.

Sarah Hillman Frazier Scholarship. This scholarship, in the principal sum of $5,000, was established to assist women students in the School of Law. The income is available to those who meet the qualifications specified by the donor.

Anonymous Scholarship. This scholarship, in the principal sum of $5,000, was established in 1952 by an anonymous donor to "aid ambitious young men to obtain an education in law that will fit them for leadership in the community." The income is available annually.

Scholarship for Graduates from a College or University Within the State of Tennessee. This scholarship was established to assist outstanding graduates of colleges and universities within this state. Character and scholarship are the primary factors considered in choosing the recipient of this award. The successful applicant may receive tuition and fees for one academic year.

Seven Cordell Hull Scholarships. These scholarships were established in honor of Cordell Hull, one of Cumberland's most distinguished Alumni. These scholarships are available to any applicant with sufficient character and scholarship and are filled on a competitive basis.

Application for these scholarships must be filed not later than July 30 and January 30. Scholarships are awarded for the academic year beginning with the Fall quarter and may be awarded for an academic year beginning with the Spring Quarter.

ORGANIZATIONS

Professional Fraternities

Local chapters of two professional fraternities have been organized for the benefit of students in the School of Law. These are (1) the Green Senate, of the Delta Theta Phi national fraternity; and (2) the Cordell Hull Chapter, of the Phi Alpha Delta national fraternity.

HONOR AND SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

There is a chapter of Blue Key National Honor and Service Fraternity on the campus. A local honor society has been organized which will affiliate with a national legal honor fraternity in the near future.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

The main campus of more than fifty acres is located in a beautiful residential section of Lebanon. The School of Law is located on this lovely spacious campus.

Memorial Hall, situated on the main campus, is occupied by the administrative offices and the School of Law. This building contains more than forty rooms for classes, libraries, and offices.

Dormitories

The W. P. Bone Hall is a dormitory for young men. It was named in honor of Dr. Winstead Paine Bone, an alumnus, and former professor, who was President of the University from 1909-1914. This building situated on the main campus, is constructed of brick and stone, finished with hardwoods, and supplied with modern conveniences. The dining room for all students is on the main floor of this building. The building has accommodations for one hundred fifty men.

Tennessee College Hall, the dormitory for young women, erected in 1938, is a brick building equipped with modern conveniences and two-room suites, each accommodating four students.

Gymnasium

The gymnasium was completed in 1937 and provides facilities for a varied program of physical training. There are rooms for the office of the athletic director and for health service.

Athletic Field

Kirk Field is located conveniently on the main campus. The field is equipped with facilities for football. Flood lights are used for night contests. By means of the gymnasium and Kirk Field, tennis courts, and a baseball field, an all-year program of intra-mural sports and tournaments is conducted for the benefit of all students of the University.

General Regulations Governing the School of Law

ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF LAW

In order to become a regular, classified student in the School of Law a candidate must (1) satisfy the general requirements for admission to the University; (2) complete at least three years, or 135 quarter hours or 90 semester hours of pre-legal, college work with an average grade of "C" or better. Beginning in September, 1952, the American Bar Association rules provide that all approved three year Law Schools must require three years of pre-law college work as a prerequisite for entrance. Students entering June 16, 1952, may be admitted under the old rules with two years of pre-law work.

Applicants may enter the School of Law with advanced standing by transferring credits from schools of law approved by the American Bar Association. A student transferring from another school of law must be eligible for readmission to that school.

UNCLASSIFIED STUDENTS

Members of the Bar may be admitted to the School of Law as unclassified students. Credit is not allowed for courses taken by unclassified students.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Since the fall quarter of 1947, the School of Law has admitted only one special student.

TIME OF ENTRANCE

It is necessary that beginning students in law plan to enter either in the fall quarter beginning in September or the spring quarter beginning in March, because there are more beginning courses at these times.

Ordinarily there will be no entering class in the winter and the summer quarters. Students who transfer from other law schools with the necessary prerequisites may enter the School of Law at any quarter. A complete schedule of courses for beginning students will be offered the Summer Quarter of 1952.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

The course in law leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws covers a period of three years of nine months each. Since the School of Law is in session twelve months in the year, it is possible to finish the course in less than three calendar years. In the three years a student is required to complete at least 123 quarter hours of credit with a minimum quality-point average of 1.0. Degrees are conferred at the regular formal convocations at the end of the spring and the fall quarters.

Credit toward the law degree may be obtained by transfer of credit hours from any law school approved by the American Bar Association. The minimum requirement for the degree is the completion of three quarters of resident study and at least 36 quarter hours of acceptable credit in the School of Law of Cumberland University.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance upon all classes for which a student is enrolled is required. All absences are treated as purely academic matters and not as matters for disciplinary action. An absence tends to cause a student to receive a lower mark. No absences are excused for any reason whatever, inasmuch as credit is based upon successful class attendance. Absence causes the student to miss what the instructor and the class have to offer, regardless of the reason for the absence.

STUDENT LOAD

A student normally enrolls for 15 hours during the first three quarters, and 14 hours during the last six quarters. Special permission of the Dean to carry more than the normal load is based upon special needs and superior ability of the student as shown by marks or tests. The requirement for graduation is 123 quarter hours.

QUALITY OF WORK

Every student in the University is required to maintain a satisfactory quality of work in order to be eligible to continue in the University.

A student who at the end of his first quarter does not make passing marks in more than half the hours for which he is enrolled is automatically dropped from the University on account of poor scholarship. After the first quarter, the student in order to continue in the School of Law must pass at least 60 per cent of all work taken during the quarter and make a quality-point average of at least 0.8 on all the work so taken. Also any student whose average continually falls below a quality of 1.0 (grade "C") will be required to withdraw from the University.

PRE-LEGAL RECOMMENDATIONS

For admission to the School of Law a candidate should present a minimum of 135 acceptable quarter hours of college credit as outlined below. At the discretion of the Dean some variation from these specified courses may be allowed, as long as the student has three years of regular academic work and has finished at least three-fourths of the work required for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study in an approved college or university.

RIGHTS RESERVED

The School of Law reserves the right to modify the requirements for admission and graduation, to change the arrangement or content of courses, to change the casebooks used, to alter any regulation affecting the student body, and to dismiss or drop from the school any student at any time, if it is deemed in the interest of the school or the student to do so.

EXPENSES

The tuition fee in the School of Law is $100.00 and matriculation fee $15.00 per quarter of 12 weeks, payable at the beginning of each quarter. Law students taking less than a full load will be charged $12.50 per quarter hour in lieu of the tuition fee or the regular tuition fee of $100.00 whichever is less. There is a late registration fee of $2.00. There is a diploma charge of $10.00 to senior students.

The charge for room and board in the dormitories is $135.00 per quarter (subject to change). Single rooms for men, when available may be had for an additional $7.50 per quarter. Students rooming in the dormitories are required to take their meals in the University dining hall. Students residing off the campus may eat in the dining hall as long as places are available. The charge for eating in the dining hall for students who do not live in the dormitories is $111.00 per quarter (subject to change).

A Matriculation Fee is required of all regular students and includes the Student Activities Fees admitting to all regularly scheduled athletic contests exclusive of tournaments, exhibits, etc.; a subscription to the student paper, The Collegian, for which the subscription price is $1.75 per year; a copy of the yearbook, The Phoenix (payment of Activities fees for two quarters of same college year is required to receive yearbook).

Fiscal Policy

The school year is divided into quarters of approximately 12 weeks each for the registration of students and for the payment of expenses.

The designated student expenses for each quarter are due and payable on the first day of the quarter. The student who cannot pay cash in full must see the Bursar and make satisfactory arrangements before entering classes. Charges for board and room are payable in advance for each period. All financial obligations to the University must be paid in order to entitle a student to have credits transferred or to register for the following quarter. All financial obligations due or to become due during the final quarter before graduation must be paid in full not later than 30 days before the convocation date in order for a student to participate and receive his diploma in the convocation exercises.

No refunds are made on any tuition or fees.

Payments are not refunded to students who leave the University for any reason except in case of illness involving absence for more than one-half a quarter, and then not more than one-half a proportionate charge for tuition, room and board for such period of absence will be refunded. Students will be expected to submit a letter from parents and attending physician when requesting a refund on account of illness. No refunds are made on any type of fees.

The University is not responsible for any financial obligations incurred by a student, organization, member of the faculty or employee or others unless authorized by the Bursar in writing.

The University has supervision and charge of student publications, directories, programs, yearbooks, as well as the awarding of dormitory and campus concessions.

Textbooks and other supplies may be secured from the University Book Store.

DORMITORIES FOR MEN AND WOMEN

The cost of rooming accommodations and board in the men's and women's dormitories is $135.00 per quarter (subject to change), payable in advance. All dormitories are closed during intermissions between quarters and Christmas holidays. (If other holidays fall on week-ends, the dining hall will be closed over the week-end.)

For those desiring a single room, there will be an additional charge of $7.50 per room per quarter when such rooms are available.

All unmarried students, both regular and special, as well as those married students who are not accompanied by their families are expected to live in the University dormitories during the first year (3 quarters) as long as there is room available. Students living out in town shall live in places approved by the University.

All students who room in the dormitories are required to board in the University dining hall. Students who have rooms off the campus will be accepted as boarders at the regular boarding rates. No meals are served on Sunday evenings. The rates will be the same for women and men.

Room reservation: $5.00 is required to reserve a room before the opening of school, this being transferred to room deposit when the student enters; same will be refunded at the end of the year in the event there is no damage, or other charge recorded. The key deposit is $1.00. The deposit is required at the beginning of the first quarter. A charge is made for damage done to school property.

Students must furnish electric light bulbs, single sheets for 3 x 6 foot bed, pillow cases, and the necessary blankets. Other articles may be brought for room decorations. Students are required to abide by the dormitory rules governing the use of radios and other devices.

General regulations: It is understood that each student who accepts a place in the dormitories agrees to abide by the ordinary requirements of gentlemanly or ladylike behavior, remembering that each is but one of a family and that others have rights that must be respected.

It is also understood that the privileges of the dormitories are granted only on condition that any form of hazing is strictly prohibited and that each student is absolutely protected in the right of his or her own room.

General Academic Regulations

THE UNIT OF CREDIT

At Cumberland University the unit of credit is the quarter hour. This represents a minimum of one 50-minute period of acceptable class work each week for twelve weeks. The minimum requirements for graduation is 123 hours in the School of Law.

STUDENT LOAD

In the School of Law the normal load is 15 hours a week during the first year and 14 a week during the last two years.

THE MARKING SYSTEM

Every student duly enrolled in a course is assigned a mark by the instructor at the end of the course indicating the character of the work done. The various marks with their meanings are indicated below. Marks are used to indicate achievement only, and not as means of discipline or punishment.

- A* is distinguished and is usually received by only a small percentage of a class.
 - B* is distinctly superior to the average of the class.
 - C* is the average or typical mark of a class, and is usually assigned more frequently than any other mark.
 - D* is distinctly inferior to the average, but is passing.
 - E* is conditioned, and means a quality of work slightly below passing. It is given only in courses which are continued on an advanced level in the following quarter. In order to secure credit, the student must either complete successfully the advanced work of the following quarter, or repeat the course. In either case the "E" remains on the record.
- If neither alternative is followed within 12 months, an "F" is recorded for the course.

GENERAL ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

- F* is failure to receive credit for the course. This mark may not be removed from the student's record, even though the course is repeated with a passing grade.
- I* is incomplete, and is used only in cases of enforced absence near the end of a quarter. It is not given unless attendance requirements of the course have been met. This mark does not indicate quality of work, but that some final requirement such as a paper or an examination is lacking. Unless this requirement is met, the mark remains on the record indefinitely. The student must assume responsibility for removing the mark within a reasonable time.
- W* is withdrawal from a course and signifies that the student was not failing in the course at the time of the withdrawal. Such withdrawal may be granted at any time before the end of the term provided the student is doing passing work. After the middle of the term, WF is used for all courses in which the student was failing at the time of withdrawal. Permission to withdraw is obtained in the Dean's office. Failure to do this may result in an F for the course and consequent loss in quality points.

QUALITY POINTS

Each hour of work taken in the University is evaluated in terms of its relative quality as shown by the mark received in a course. The various marks with their corresponding quality points are shown below.

- A* 3 quality points for each quarter hour
- B* 2 quality points for each quarter hour
- C* 1 quality point for each quarter hour
- D* 0 quality points
- F* -1 quality point for each quarter hour

For graduation, 123 quality points are required in the School of Law, or an average of one quality point for each quarter hour of credit received. A quality-point average of "C" must be made on all work taken at Cumberland University.

ATTENDANCE REGULATIONS

Since credit is reckoned in terms of the hours of actual class attendance, it is necessary that students attend regularly the classes in which they are enrolled. Students are made responsible for meeting their classes at the appointed hours and places.

No absences from class are excused for any reason. No "cuts" are permitted or recognized. Absences are treated as a purely academic matter. Absence means a loss of those values which the instructor and the class have to offer the student. This loss is sustained regardless of the reason for the absence. In certain cases some work can be made up to compensate in a measure for absence. In the final reckoning of credit and marks, excessive absences may prevent the student from receiving maximum credit for the course, as well as the maximum in quality points.

STANDARD OF WORK REQUIRED

Every student in the University is required to maintain a satisfactory quality of work in order to be eligible to continue in the University.

A student who at the end of a quarter does not make passing marks in more than half the hours for which he is enrolled is automatically placed on probation for the subsequent quarter. Unless the student makes a "C" average while on probation he is dropped from the University on account of poor scholarship. Also any student who does a poor quality of work during a quarter may be required to withdraw from the University.

REPORT OF GRADES

Generally the report of a student's grades for each quarter is sent to the student personally. Parents who desire reports of the grades of their son or daughter should write directly to the Registrar. Usually the grade reports are not ready until after two weeks following the close of a quarter.

LATE REGISTRATION AND CHANGES IN REGISTRATION

1. Registration after the first week of a quarter is permitted in certain cases, but students entering during the second week may not take the maximum of 16 hours.
2. Registration after the second week of a quarter is not permitted.
3. Changes in registration after the second week of a quarter are not permitted except in very extraordinary cases and by special permission of the Dean.
4. There is a fee of two dollars charged for late registration.

CONVOCAATION OF THE UNIVERSITY

Degrees are conferred at the close of the spring quarter and the fall quarter. Students who complete the requirements for degrees at the close of the summer and winter quarters may receive a certificate stating that the work is completed and that the degree will be formally conferred at the next regular convocation.

Candidates for degrees are expected to be present and participate in the academic exercises of the convocation; in exceptional cases permission may be secured from the President to be graduated in absentia.

Biographical and Historical Sketch

The School of Law was authorized by the trustees as a department of Cumberland University on February 22, 1847. At various subsequent sittings of the board the plan of organization was perfected, and in the month of October, 1847, the first term opened, with one professor and seven students present. Judge Abram Caruthers was the professor. He was called from the bench of the Circuit Court to this new work by the Board of Trustees. Robert L. Caruthers, who for many years was President of the Board, provided the first classroom in his own office.

The school was at once a success. Judge Nathan Green, Sr., then one of the Supreme Judges of the State, was called to assist Judge Caruthers in the conduct of the school in 1848. He did not resign as a member of the Supreme Court until 1852. Judge Bromfield L. Ridley became a Professor of Law in 1848, and served until 1852.

In 1856, Nathan Green, Jr., was elected a professor, the prosperity of the school requiring the services of three instructors. These three men continued as the faculty until the beginning of the Civil War in 1861. At that time there were one hundred and eighty law students in attendance. Judge Abram Caruthers died during the war. Judge Nathan Green, Sr., survived the war and assisted his son, Nathan Green, Jr., in the revival of the school, but died in 1866. He was succeeded that year by the Hon. Henry Cooper, and two years thereafter, Judge Cooper having resigned, Judge Robert L. Caruthers, who was for many years on the Supreme Bench of the State, was elected to fill the vacancy. He resigned in 1881 because of advancing years and feeble health, and Dr. Andrew B. Martin succeeded him, serving until his death, May 19, 1920.

Judge Nathan Green, Jr., having taught as a Professor in the School of Law for more than sixty-three years, died on February 17, 1919. He was succeeded by Judge Edward E. Beard, who served until his death, June 18, 1924. In July, 1920, W. R. Chambers was elected as the successor of Dr. Martin, and in October, 1923, Judge Albert Williams was selected as a Professor of Law.

Judge A. B. Neil was elected Professor of Law in September, 1930, and was made Dean in January, 1935. Judge Neil was graduated from the School of Law of Cumberland University in September, 1896. He served for many years as a Criminal Judge and later as Circuit Judge and as a member of the State Supreme Court. He is now Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee.

Judge Frank T. Fancher was a member of the law faculty from September, 1935, to June, 1937; re-elected, September, 1939. In September, 1941 Judge Fancher became Dean. He graduated from this law school under the teaching of Judge Green and Dr. Martin and had much experience in the practice of law in Tennessee and Florida. In 1915-1916, again in 1937 and in 1940-41 he served by appointment of three different governors as a Special Judge on the Supreme Bench of Tennessee. For over twelve years he was a member of the Board of Law Examiners of Tennessee.

In June 1932, Judge Sam B. Gilreath, a 1925 graduate of the School of Law, became a Professor of Law and has served continuously since. He was named later as Dean of the school. He is the author of the latest revision of Caruthers History of a Law Suit, a widely used work on Civil Practice.

Following the second World War, Judge Gilreath and Allison B. Humphreys, Jr., served as professors in the School of Law. Professor Humphreys resigned in June, 1946, to take over responsibilities in the Attorney General's Office of the State of Tennessee.

Thus far in the history of the School of Law the plan of instruction has been at first one year of legal education, and then, as this plan progressed, there came a time when this emphasis on textbook instruction for the one year was supplemented by an emphasis on casebook study for a second year, and this became a requirement of the University. When the reorganization of the University in 1946 was effected, this two-year plan of law study was replaced by a three-year plan of study and the requirement of two years of pre-legal work as a basis of entrance into the School of Law. Those who were engaged in the two-year plan on July 10, 1946, were carried through to the completion of their work. All who entered thereafter entered under the new regulations set up at that time.

The School of Law, as it is now constituted, requires two years as a minimum of pre-legal study and three years of study in the School of Law as a requirement for the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Every phase of the work in the School of Law has been set up on a standard basis.

In September, 1947, Arthur A. Weeks joined the faculty as Professor of Law and was made Dean in September, 1948. Bernard B. Bailey joined the faculty as a Professor of Law in August, 1948 and William H. Stanford, Jr. joined the faculty as Associate Professor of Law in September, 1949.

In February, 1949, the School of Law of Cumberland University was approved by the American Bar Association, provisional approval having been granted at that time.
